KENTUCKIANS ARE URGED TO VACCINATE AGAINST TYPHOID

Kentucky State Board of Health Issues Recommendation to the Public to Vaccinate Against Typhoid and Bowell Trembles.

Dr. V. D. Guttard, Director of the Mason County Health Department, has received the following communication from the State Board of Health and it is published for the information of all concerned.

Whereas: Official reports from widely separated counties indicate an unusual state-wide epidemic of typhoid fever, a serious fifth disease, and of similar bowel borne diseases, including diarrhea, dysentery, and summer complaint in all children; and,

Whereas: These diseases are spread from the sick to the well only from unboiled or bowel discharges and urine; Now, Therefore, acting under the authority conferred upon it by law,

The State Board of Health of Kentucky requests every citizen to be vaccinated against typhoid fever by his or her family physician as soon as possible with the reliable vaccine material furnished free from this office which is produced in the same careful manner as that which successfully protected the lives of our 5,000,000 soldiers during the World War, and that every family living outside of the sewer districts of cities is requested to install a Kentucky Sanitary Privy.

Literature in regard to both these measures may be obtained by a postal card request to the State Board of Health, Louisville, Kentucky, or by application to the local office.

NO TRACE OF CHECK WORKER.

The police who have been investigating the working of a cold check on Mr. John Bolling, East End grocer, have thus far been unable to find any trace of the young man who put up the job in which the grocer is the loser of $12 in hard cash, a sack of flour and an ice cream cone. They have about reached the conclusion that the smooth individual was a professional and has left for parts unknown.

CLOTHES DON'T MAKE THE MAN

An excellent pictureization of the popular stage success, "Civilian Clothes," with Thomas Meighan in the stellar role, will be shown at the Washington Thursday evening.

The story deals with an army captain who married a society girl in France, while she was dazzled by his handsome appearance in uniform, and discovered upon his return to America, after having been reported killed in action, that she was reluctant to own him in his over-told civilian clothes. To cure her of her snobbish ideas, he became a butler in her household and, after several dramatic developments that fell exactly in with his plans, convinced her that clothes don't make the man.

Mr. Meighan is assisted by an able supporting company headed by Martha Mansfield, the pretty Polles girl who was also John Barrymore's leading woman in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Marie Shotwell, Warren Cook, and Frank Losee are also in the cast. The picture was produced by Hugh Ford and is a Paramount release. It marks the elevation to stardom of Mr. Meighan, who has played the leading male roles in such conspicuous successes as George Loane Tucker's "The Miracle Man" and Cecil B. DeMille's "Mala and Female" and "Why Change Your Wife?"

CARDINAL BAND RANES NOW WITH THE BEST.

The concert given at the band stand in Market street Wednesday evening by the Mayville Cardinals was the best band concert they have yet played. There was a good crowd in attendance to enjoy the well balanced program of high class and popular numbers. The Cardinal Band is developing into the class of high grade musical organizations and Mayville will not be a bit ashamed of them on their summer tour.

ARLINGTON TO HOLD BODY OF JAS. KELLUM KILLED IN FRANCE

Body of Private James Kellum Will Be Returned to America This Week and Burial Will Be Made in National Cemetery.

Mrs. Kate McLaughlin, of East Sixth street, was notified by telegram Wednesday that the body of her son, James B. Kellum, who was killed in the World War on June 5th, 1918, would arrive in the United States on Friday, July 16th, and be buried in the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va.

Young Kellum enlisted in the Marines one week after war was declared by the United States and was assigned to the Fifth Regiment of Marines. He took part in several of the hardest fought battles in the war in which the Marines participated and was killed by a German bomb. He was the last Mayville man who made the great sacrifice for democracy and a great memorial service was held by the people of Mayville in his honor at St. Patrick's church shortly after the notice of his death.

James Kellum was a most popular young man and his death cast a great shadow over Mayville. His mother will probably attend the burial at Arlington. She will be notified by the Federal authorities as to the time of the funeral.

The following from the Augusta Chronicle is of interest:
The Chronicle gathers the following information from an Augusta tobacco man who seems to be well posted on sales of old tobacco made in this vicinity during the past two weeks. T. H. Kirk, the well-known tobacco man being the purchaser, but we were unable to learn whether the purchases, mostly of the lower grades, were for the companies he is interested with or for export. All of the purchases sold were of the 1920 crop.

Wade H. Powers refused $15 for a purchase of 35,000, while other local dealers refused to put a price on their holdings, figuring that if the dry weather continues that top prices have not been reached.

A CRACKER-CAN STILL.

Deputy Sheriff H. L. Jackson captured and brought in from W. G. Martin, near Foxport, Monday the still which had been used by the party which we mentioned last week as having been operating near there. It was simply a steel cracker can, without any copper about it, and would hold probably ten gallons. The cap and worm were not captured.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

LEXINGTON GREEK GETS DEATH SENTENCE FOR RAPE

Lexington Restaurant Man Is Convicted of Rape Charge and Under New Law Will Be Hanged in County of the Act.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Louis Kokas, aged 39, operator of a restaurant at 221 North Limestone street, was found guilty of rape by a jury in Fayette Circuit Court at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Under a new Kentucky law the punishment on conviction of this crime is death by hanging in the jail yard of the county in which the crime was committed. Kokas has never become naturalized as an American.

Kokas was charged with having attacked nine-year-old Nanale Mao Clem, stepdaughter of Nick Poppas, a restaurant keeper at 203 North Limestone street. The crime is alleged to have been committed Sunday, June 6, while the child's mother, Mrs. Poppas, was visiting in Mt. Sterling.

As the verdict of guilty, carrying a sentence of hanging, was read stillness fell upon the court room.

Kokas nervously fingered papers on the desk in front of him and mopped his brow, showing plainly the jarring effect of the verdict. It was said to be the general opinion in court circles and among those who heard the testimony that a hung jury would be the result of the trial.

When asked what he thought about the verdict, Kokas shrugged his shoulders and raised his hands in a despairing gesture and said: "It's awful, I did not do it and don't know why they want to hang me." He brushed tears from his eyes with his free hand and then asked about how long it would take to get a new trial or an appeal to the "big court at Frankfort." He seemed relieved when fellow-prisoners told him it would require several months to hear the result of an appeal.

P. T. A. of Eastland school will have social Friday night, pies, ice cream, and candy will be sold. 13Jul21

KENTUCKY IS THE MOST AMERICAN STATE

Fewer Foreign Born In This State Than In Any Other State In America.

There are fewer foreign-born farmers in Kentucky than in any other state in the country according to a report of the Census Bureau just issued.

There are 1,112 farmers in the state who were born in other countries. Germans lead with a total of 508. There is only one farmer from Norway and 168 Swiss farmers in the state.

The total number of foreign-born farmers in the United States is 681,054 and the state's quota is less than one-fiftieth of one per cent.

Other countries represented are: Austria, 39; Canada, 46; Denmark, 13; England, 15; Finland, 6; France, 44; Holland, 15; Hungary, 5; Ireland, 83; Italy, 19; Poland, 5; Russia, 10; Scotland, 14; Sweden, 10, and all other countries, 60.

EDITORIAL CHAIR GIVEN PRESIDENT BY NEWSPAPER MEN

Members of the Fourth Estate Present First Member of Their Craft to Become President With an "Editorial" Chair.

Washington, July 14.—A high-backed "editorial chair," presented to President Harding by more than 600 fellow newspaper editors, was added Wednesday to the furnishings of the Presidential study in the White House. It was made of wood from the famous old schooner Revenge, captured from the British on Lake Champlain during the Revolutionary War, and was presented through a committee headed by Ernest F. Birmingham of The Fourth Estate.

Senator Capper of Kansas, publisher of The Topeka Capital, was selected to make the presentation speech and another member of the Committee of Seventy-five, which arranged for the presentation, was James M. Cox, publisher of The Dayton News, and Mr. Harding's Democratic opponent for the Presidency last year.

Senator Capper said that the occasion was unique in that Mr. Harding was the first member of the profession to become President.

"Permit me to say this is no ordinary chair," he said, "with singular thoughtfulness, the originators of the idea, have had put into this testimonial material of the first warship in the American navy, the Revenge, taken a few years ago from the bottom of Lake Champlain.

"There is no revenge today in the navy of this country. There is none in the American plan for the future. There is only good will in American hearts for all the world.

"We believe the American press, exemplified by your own honorable part in its upbuilding, does much to make men more thoughtful and considerate and upright in the forming of the highest ideals of American citizenship. That the newspaper men have complete confidence in your ability and determination to measure up to the great demands of the time is shown in this spontaneous expression today."

BUILT BETTER!
Lasts Longer
Costs Less to Operate

Is this a time to be letting up on the efficiency of farming? A thousand times No! That would be yielding to a penny-wise, pound-foolish policy.

Yield is the big thing today. A certain yield from the land must first pay the fixed expenses—such an investment in land, interest, taxes, or rent, depreciation on equipment, etc.—to break even. For profit, the yield must go higher.

There comes the mission of good, reliable, time-saving machinery—the kind that's built better, lasts longer, and costs less to operate. That's the kind of

Farm Machinery

We aim to sell—and, have in stock, or, can get for you, anything you want. Don't, because things are a little blue, let up on your farm efficiency—good times are right ahead of us, "Let's go!"

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

THE LUMBER TARIFF.

One Republican editor, professed an advocate of protection, argues in favor of free trade in lumber in order that we may use Canadian timber and save our own. He fears that our forests will be depleted. That means, if it means anything, that while we are saving our timber, our logging camps will be closed, saw mills will close down, planing mills will cease to hum, on this side of the border, while north of the line the Canadian mills will be working at full capacity and new mills will be erected to supply the demand. Canadian lumbermen will be drawing wages, which they will spend for Canadian clothing, for Canadian food and for Canadian services of various kinds.

We cannot save our own forests without buying elsewhere. If free trade will result in buying Canadian lumber, as asserted by the editor we are discussing, then there will be a corresponding diminution in demand for American lumber, with less employment for American labor and less buying of American goods. If saving our timber is the proper policy then let us extend the policy. For fear that the fertility of our farms will be depleted, let's buy crops produced in Canada. For fear that our mineral deposits will be depleted, let's buy all our minerals abroad. Lest some of our men of genius might break down under the nerve strain of great exertion, let's save their energies by employing Canadians to direct our great industrial enterprises, what few we have left after closing down a lot of them to save our resources.

As a matter of fact, there is a lot of buncombe about the danger of depletion of our forests. As timber becomes scarcer and more expensive, we shall gradually adopt other materials, brick, stone, concrete and steel. Moreover, it has been demonstrated that a tariff policy which invites importation of Canadian lumber encourages waste, for, when in competition with the Canadian lumberman, the American lumberman used only the best of the tree, leaving the poorer and coarser part to decay of the forest.

The whole question of a tariff on lumber is based upon the same principle as any other tariff. If protection is right in principle, it should be applied to every industry in which the cost of production is higher under the American standard of living and cost of materials than in the country with which our industries compete. Canada has a system of selling timber from the public lands which gives the lumberman in that Dominion an advantage over the American producer. There is also alleged to be a lower labor cost in Canada. Whether this difference exists, and what the extent of the difference is, may be a matter of doubt, but when it is demonstrated that there is a difference in cost of production, there should no longer be any doubt that lumber will be given a protective tariff on exactly the same principle that is followed in the tariff act in general.

AN EIGHT DOLLAR KISS.

A kiss given his intended while at the Dayton, Ky., bathing beach this week was rather expensive to a Cincinnati youth. A Dayton judge assessed a fine of eight dollars and costs against the young fellow who testified that he was engaged to marry the young lady he publicly caressed. At the same time two young men were fined two dollars and costs each for riding through the streets of the city in an automobile clad only in their bathing suits.

We don't see much wrong with a young man kissing his intended in public if they are not ashamed but there is much wrong in young men driving through a city clad only in their bathing costumes.

The crusade against spooning on the Dayton Bathing Beach is being pressed this year and several have been fined for wearing bathing suits which were not acceptable to the censor.

Maysville's beaches have no censor but so far as we have learned the chaperones at the beach have permitted no "rough stuff" and there is no complaint to make against the conduct of the bathers on the beach. It might be well, however, for some of our young men to have it called to their attention that others are being fined in other cities for coming off the beach and into the city clad in bathing suits.

TAKE EDUCATION OUT OF POLITICS.

The Educational Commission recently appointed by Governor Morrow has made a partial report to him advising that the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction be removed from politics. A constitutional amendment will soon be submitted to the voters of Kentucky taking the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction from politics by making it appointive and this amendment should have the wholehearted support of all who are anxious to see Kentucky take its proper place among the states of the union in matters educational.

The new Kentucky school law passed by the 1920 Legislature removed the County Superintendent of Schools from politics and made this office elective by the County Board of Education. It is our prediction that this system will prove most successful and that the schools will greatly profit by the change. To do the best work, a school head, state or county, should be retained more than four years if efficient and politics is too uncertain.

Leaders of both great parties in Kentucky who have the education of the youth of the state at heart will support the Constitutional amendment at the election.

"WARFARE."

Saturday Evening Post—Those who conspire to wrest an unjust profit from the necessity of the people do not profess enmity. To profess enmity would be to invite destruction. They operate under the guise of friendship and work a mischief that is more than a breach of allegiance, more than adherence to an enemy—that is, in short, an act of warfare in quest of spoil.

Two United States warships have started to Tampico, where they will give protection to Americans. A labor crisis is anticipated in the oil fields. The commanders had the foresight, it is hoped, to take the ships' bands along.

CAMP ROOSEVELT WILL BE VERY BUSY PLACE

Great Camping Place Will Be Bustling Place for Youngsters During Summer Months.

To have something doing every minute that will educate, entertain, or otherwise help the cadets and scout-crafters will be the aim of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Roosevelt, Muskegon, Michigan, during the coming summer. This organization, which has a big hut in camp, has done excellent work during the last two seasons, and is aiming to excel all previous records this season. All of the old features will be found again, as well as quite a few new ones.

The piano will again hold forth on the stage and any budding artist is free to use it in his spare time. The Victrola and a Brunswick will furnish music for those who prefer the canned type. Writing tables are provided and there will be always plenty of stationery on hand. Magazines and books will be there for those who feel desirous of reading.

A library will be established, with a large number of boys' books and some scientific volumes in it. These books can be taken to the tents by the cadets and kept for a period of time, just as books are taken from public libraries in the cities.

Entertainment there will be galore. Every evening will find something on to amuse and educate. Karl Keefer, of Community Service, Inc., one of the most popular men with the boys last summer, will again be on hand to lead in the singings and he will bring out a large number of the artists from in and about Muskegon to perform for the boys.

Plans are being made to bring out to "Home Talent" and have them put on a few entertainments. Prizes will be awarded to the company that puts on the best evening entertainment. Every prospective cadet who is the Geo. M. Cohen of his home town, or who plays a musical instrument, should come to make use of his talents. Embryo Caruso should also get their vocal chords in trim so as to be in a condition to display their ability.

Movies will be shown twice a week at the big outdoor movie "palace" on the camp grounds. The movies will be late releases and will furnish entertainment for the summer resorters in the vicinity as well as the boys.

Secretaries of the "Y" will aid in the athletic contests, and in getting the men in trim to meet. Most of the "Y" secretaries are experienced cowlege athletes, so their advice and coaching will be a great aid.

Church services will be conducted in the "Y" but as usual. Every Sunday morning a Roman Catholic priest will come out to conduct mass for all the Catholic boys and their friends and relatives who may be visiting camp. These services will be followed by Jewish services conducted by rabbis from Chicago. Then there will be Sunday school followed by Protestant church services.

On Sunday evening there will be a big inspirational meeting in the "Y" hut. The boys will join in mass singing, and the old favorites will again be on the program. After singing to their hearts' content, the boys will hear an inspirational talk by some man of prominence.

"Keeping Fit" talks by Frank Sherwood will again be a feature. Mr. Sherwood, who is in the employ of the United States Health Department, is one of the best speakers in the country on the subject of "Sex Hygiene," and his talks will be an aid to all.

The Press Club for boys interested in newspaper work and writing promises to be one of the most interesting of the new features.

After July 1, the Camp Headquarters will be located at the Camp, Muskegon, Michigan. Applications and requests for information should be sent there to Captain F. L. Beals, Camp Commandant.

New York. — The Hudson River Freight Car tan is going to run a close rival to the Palm Beach and the Atlantic City tan long before this summer is done with. Everybody knows that the days of envying white skin are in the far-away. Nowadays, the shops even sell kahki-colored powder to give the illusion of having been wintering or summering in the leisure lands. And a freight car may do as well as the Siasconset sands if it's properly employed. Now, the Huron Rivers offers perfectly good water for New York stay-at-homes to swim in, but it's short on beaches, especially on the New York side. It has, however, a fine little assortment of freight cars parked on the tracks that edge it; and they are the substitute. Into the river jump the bathers; then jump out again all nice and wet, and climb to the top of a freight car and stretch themselves out to receive the rays of the tanning sun. What care they for curious eyes of passing braken? Before long, they'll have such a coat of tan that each additional person who looks at them will mean one more glow of pride.

She really isn't a grafter at all, not even of the gentlest kind; but there is probably one woman somewhere in this city who would hesitate to believe that. One day she happened to sit at a table in a restaurant with a woman who had an enormous heart-of-lettuce salad, much too large for one person. "Won't you share this with me?" the stranger asked. She did. The other day, a week later, when she came into the restaurant again, the head waiter tried to show her to the same place but she caught sight of her favorite waiter at a distant table, where there was a vacant cove and insisted upon going over there. When she sat down she saw opposite her the surprised face of the lady who had bestowed the salad.

One of the interesting publications of the season is a series of monographs on eminent American artists, called "The American Art Library," published by Boni & Liveright, who have done so many worth while things in the way of unusual publications. A carefully selected group of painters and sculptors is presented, starting with Robert Henri and continuing through the greatest of the living artists. The series is a comprehensive study, supplemented by reproductions of their most characteristic works, and is enlightening to a good many of us who still harbor the idea that nearly all the great artists live on the other side of the Atlantic or else died a long time ago.

One of the truly thrifty — not stingy — housewives of this large city is Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, the elder. Never renowned for foolishness with money, Mrs. Vanderbilt this summer is making a point of showing the other Newport women how to get 100 cents worth of every dollar. She starts downtown in the morning with a car, looks over the market men's wares and buys with great care. Then to make sure that she get what she bought, and also to cut down delivery costs, Mrs. Vanderbilt takes home her purchases with her. She's a good example for those who cherish an opinion that in a truly

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle after another until I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. BRITTEEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GRANGER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nerves, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Babe Ruth has been forced to look elsewhere than to speeding automobile for his after-the-game excitement these last few weeks. To warrens brought his close to the danger line. And evidently excitement and speed are two things the Babe must have. So where do you suppose he is finding them? Across the Hudson in New Jersey on the scenic railway of a river-side amusement park! It's a particularly whirlingz railway, and the owner of the park makes the baseball hero a free and honored guest until it's closing time at night.

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth" are the inconsiderate rich! Especially the women! So, at least, says Lawrence Kubal, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Minnie F. Bartlett at her Long Island home. Kubal explained, quite reasonably, he thought, that he wouldn't have murdered her if all if she had handed over her money as he asked her to do. "Damn the rich women anyway," he said. "They are no good. They don't give a working man a chance."

LUCY JEANNE PRICE.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington. — In the recent battleship bombing exercises held by the U. S. Navy off the Atlantic coast, two things were conclusively proven: First, that given proper weather and other conditions, an enemy battleship within 100 miles of our coast would soon find itself in an untenable position; and, second, that the Hammond system of radio control needs but little more perfecting to render it a pronounced success when applied to watercraft. But the exercises did not prove, as many air enthusiasts had hoped, that we may dispense with first-class fighting ships. As effective coast defenders under ideal conditions, airplanes proved their worth, but of course ideal conditions are frequently wanting. For example the exercises were postponed a day on account of fog. And there is yet a limit to the radius within which planes may effectively operate. However, the tests show that a combination of adequate bombing planes and battleships is a necessity. As the Japanese naval attaché who witnessed the tests, well expressed it, the tests were interesting and impressive, but the battleship is still a force to be reckoned with and will be for many years to come.

The Iowa tests were divided into two principal phases: (1) The location by aircraft of a naval vessel operating in a zone off the coast, followed by the concentration there of sufficient aircraft for effective bombing operations against such vessel; and (2) actual bombing tests from the aircraft so concentrated, using dummy bombs of standard size, form, and weight against the naval vessel. The Iowa was the target vessel, and was operated by radio control from the Ohio, five miles away. The bombing was at a minimum of 4,000 feet height. Eight a. m. was the zero hour. June 29th, at which time the Iowa was steaming landward about 100 miles from coast as far south as Cape Hatteras, its position then being unknown to the air force, except that the terms demand she be somewhere between Hatteras and Henlopen and between 50 and 100 miles from shore, or within an area roughly of from 10,000 to 20,000 square miles.

About an hour and a half after zero two army blimps, D-2 and D-4, made their appearance over the horizon and located the Iowa, then moving at 8 knots, without a soul on board, her steering gear and fuel control being operated perfectly. The blimps wire-lessly back her location and the airplanes from Cape May, Hampton Roads, Yorktown, and Quantico were sent to attack in the following order: (1) Light bombardment squadrons; (2) heavy bombardment squadrons; (3) seaplanes. In the light class were the P-C-L's and D-H's carrying 163 and 230-pound bombs; in the heavies were the N. C.'s and Martin's carrying 500 and 1000-pound bombs. About two and one-half hours after zero the first planes were spotted, and the Iowa began proceeding in a zig-zag course.

At first the bombing was confined to individual plane shots, the attack terminating with a salvo bombardment from five planes. It should be borne in mind that the Iowa, built in 1902, is some 200 feet shorter than the modern first-class battleship and of considerably less beam, so that the press reports that 80 bombs were dropped and only two score direct hits is entirely misleading when weighing the tests. A large number fell within 200 feet of either end of the ship, while several almost took the point off her sides, and two struck the deck. The number of stern shots was amazing, and as under battle conditions these would have quickly put the propellers of a modern battleship out of commission, while the beam shots would have worked havoc in her engine room, it may be said that those shots were much more effective than the deck shots. The planes returned to their hangars after the exercises, without accident.

Among the spectators who witnessed the tests from the U. S. Henderson, were naval attaches of France, Great Britain, Japan, and Portugal. Senators Wadsworth, of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, Jones, of the Committee on Commerce, Rail, of Delaware, and Spencer, of Missouri. All were much impressed and well satisfied that aircraft were dependable coast defense units under proper conditions.

STAY WITH K. U.

Alumni of the University all over Kentucky and the nation Tuesday expressed in telegrams their hope that Dr. Frank L. McVey, the president, will see his way clear to turn down the offer, made last week, of the presidency of the University of Missouri. The telegrams came to Dr. McVey personally and he would not permit them to be seen, but it is known that they came from friends and alumni of the University, one from the alumni club in New York City. Other telegrams were received from members of the survey commission which last month visited four northern universities in the interest of the Kentucky institution.

McHENRY TRIAL RESULTED IN A HUNG JURY

Man Charged With Attack on Manchester Marshal Was Arrested in Maysville.

Manchester, Ohio, July 14. — After a two days' trial and an eight hour seige by a jury without getting any place the case of Ern McHenry charged with beating up Marshal Swoers, of Manchester, on the evening of May 11th, ended Tuesday night at 5 o'clock.

Judge Stephenson dismissed the jury, will call another at once and the case will be set for trial without delay.

Prosecutor Holderness assisted by Robuck and Blair summoned twenty-four witnesses, Shively for McHenry summoned fifteen. Both sides fought over every inch inside the ropes and were on their feet at the sound of the last gong.

This case has branched out until it is more than local. Each side is determined and side issues will likely be threshed out in the coming trial. McHenry was released on bond. The matter is interesting to the taxpayer.

OBREGON WOULD PAY LOSSES TO FOREIGNERS IN MEXICO

Losses Suffered By All Foreigners Through Mexican Rebellions Would Be Paid By Mexico.

Mexico City, July 14. — All countries whose nationals have suffered damages from Mexican revolutionists have been invited by President Obregon to appoint delegates who will meet Mexican representatives and form a permanent commission to pass upon claims.

The invitation was issued in the form of a presidential decree and it will be sent to all interested nations by the foreign office.

The President's action was in accordance with the law passed in May, 1913, at the instance of President Carranza, and was intended to give what ever official stamp was necessary to make a permanent mixed committee dealing with indemnities and certainty.

The foreign secretary's instructions to various Mexican embassies and legations requests the diplomats to inform the nations interested that Mexico is "disposed to enter into arrangements with the foreign governments looking to the equitable indemnification of persons who suffered damages because of revolutionists in Mexico from 1913 to the present time."

President Obregon in issuing the decree is declared to have been "inspired by a desire to act in accordance with the precepts of international law." He is understood to have requested the foreign office to extend "a cordial invitation to all interested nations to assist in forming the claims committee." The entire session of the cabinet on Tuesday night is said to have been occupied by a discussion of this plan and it was decided it was unnecessary for Congress to adopt a new law covering the subject. Members of the cabinet held that as the law of May, 1913, was still in effect, further action on the part of the present government need not be taken.

WOMEN'S WOES

Maysville Women Are Finding Relief At Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ill. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know. Mrs. E. L. Cullen, 322 West Second street, Maysville, says: "Three years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble and my back ached continually. I had no ambition to do my housework and everything seemed a drag to me while going about it. I had biting, dizzy spells and my head ached all the time. My kidneys were not acting regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I sent to Wood & Son's drug store and got a box. After using them I got over the trouble entirely and have never since been bothered. I willingly recommend this remedy."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cullen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

KICKED ON CHIN BY COLT; JAW IS BROKEN.

He was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Lexington where the fractured bones were set by Dr. A. H. Barclay.

BUY YOUR COAL DIRECT FROM MINE—BIG SAVING.

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal. The way to buy coal is to get it direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a carload buyer or one who used only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old-established concern, THE BERNICE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 490 Como Building, Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never before had coal that makes so little dust, that burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernice Coal Co. at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.

A NEW REMEDY

Thompson's Barosma Kidney Tablets.

Are the result of a great deal of medical research and study.

Thompson's Kidney Tablets are composed of the drugs that have proved themselves in past years the most efficacious for kidney and bladder diseases, combined with the newly discovered drugs and chemicals that have made great advancement in the treatment of the kidneys and bladder. They also act upon the liver.

If you have any indication of kidney, liver or bladder trouble, backache, sickache, sallow complexion or nervousness, we want you to try the Tablets on these liberal terms: Purchase a box of Thompson's Barosma Kidney Tablets from J. J. Wood & Son, and if you are not greatly benefited after taking the tablets, return the empty box to J. J. Wood & Son and they will cheerfully return your money. Price 60 cents.

If you are constipated or bilious take one of the Golden Lax Tablets at bedtime. 25 cents per box.

Help Wanted--Male

From the story by Edwina Levin and directed by Henry King. All-star cast includes Blanche Sweet, Henry King, Frank Leigh, Mayne Kelso, Thomas Jefferson, Jay Belasco, Jean Acker and others. She put her trusty bulldog on the trail. And she used the mails to lure the males. Can you imagine what happened? If you're married, watch your step! If you're single, watch your heart.
